

J. R. RACE & CO.

BARGAINS!

We are now ready with a large line of stylish, well-made

ALL-WOOL SUITS, which will be sold at the low price of $10.00 PER SUIT.

A CHOICE LINE OF

NOBBY SUITS,
FOR YOUTHS AND BOYS,

From the cheapest to the best.

ALSO ALL GRADES OF

STRAW HATS, Cheap.

A LOT OF FINE

MANILLA STRAW HATS--Bargains

CALL AND EXAMINE.

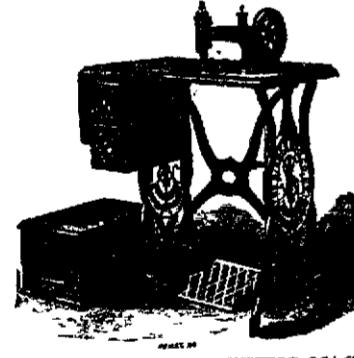

J. R. RACE & CO.

April 28--d&wtf

STEP IN AT THE New Singer Office,

53 Opera Block, North Water St.

SUPPLIES
AND ATTACHMENTS
FOR ALL MACHINES.

SEWING MACHINE
REPAIRED ANY

EVERYTHING FOR THE SEWING MACHINE.

GEO. P. BLUME.

IRON ROOFING.

SMITH, HALDEMAN & CHANDLER'S

Combined Cap and Anchor Iron Roofing.

It is WATER-PROOF.

It is FIRE-PROOF.

It is LIGHTNING-PROOF.

It is more durable than tin or slate, and cheaper than either. It is suitable for any style of building.

MANUFACTURED AT THE

Corner of Water and Cerro Gordo Streets,

Where orders will be received and promptly executed by

ROBERT McCLELLAND.

April 15--d&wtf

N. BOMMERSBACH,

RADCLIFF & BULLARD,

Successors to E. S. A. TRUST & CO.)

FLORIST!

Greenhouses on Cemetery St.

All kinds of Seasonable Flowering and Foliage Plants on hand at all times.

BOUQUETS made on short notice.

CUT FLOWERS arranged in any form.

FLORAL DESIGNS furnished on order, and FOLIAGE BEDS made for patrons without extra charge. Come and see me.

N. BOMMERSBACH.

May 10--dimo

NOTICE.

You are hereby notified that the undersigned intends making application to the regular meeting of the city council in June, A. D. 1882, to have the same made a public road in a house situated on lot No. 9, block No. 1, H. Prentiss's Addition to Decatur, and said house to be known as the "James Mullin."

Decatur, Ill., the 29th day of May, 1882.

PATRICK W. FINN

UNDERTAKERS!

And dealers in all kinds of Wood, Metallic Coffins and Caskets.

Prices ranging from the cheapest to the most expensive. Also

FULL CLOTH COVERED CASES OF SOLID WALNUT.

For the use of the small white Hearns in the city, only $5.00. We guarantee satisfaction, and to be fully convinced, to give us a call.

Stand--Southwest Corner Old Square, Decatur, Illinois.

MONDAY EVENING, MAY 26, 1882.

B. M. HAMSLER, J. H. MOSSER,
HAMSLER & MOSSER, Proprietors.
DECATUR, ILLINOIS.Entered at the Post Office at Decatur, Illinois, as second class mail matter.

LIEUT. DANENHAUER and three of his associates, survivors of the ill-fated Arctic steamer Jeannette, arrived in New York yesterday. The lieutenant is still suffering from an affection of the eyes, one of which is almost entirely blind. The scene when the gallant young lieutenant met and embraced his father and mother, and when the son and brother of Fred Cole, the boatswain of the Jeannette, (who is crazed from iron hunger and exposure) gazed the poor demented creature, is described as affecting in the extreme.

There will be music in the air at Washington to-day, when the Republicans introduce their plan for breaking the deadlock in the house.

If the Democrats had good, sound political judgment, they would not antagonize a measure that will enable them to back gracefully out of the very perplexing dilemma in which they have placed themselves, but the probability is that they will pursue the usual blundering course, and make another mad tilt at the fate against which they have been blindly fighting for a quarter of a century.

The Road Law.

The time for road work having arrived, the public, the highway commissioners and pathfinders will probably be thankful for the following law quotations. More attention should be paid to the roads and the law:

ANDERSONVILLE.

A Day Among the Tombs in a Famous City of the Dead.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

TROUBLE BREWING.
How the Dead Lock is to be Broken.

OTHER POLITICAL GOSSIP

A correspondent made a pilgrimage to Andersonville, Ga., and writes as follows concerning a famous relic of war times:

Footsore, weary and covered with dust I arrived at this place two nights ago. At an hour past midnight the gibbons moon trembled on the meridian, and the range of hills was passed overlooking the great burial place as I paused, gazing long and silently at the lines of white headstones—literally line upon line—like silent regiments of sheeted spectres, waiting for the trumpet sound of the final judgment. No tongue or pen can write the impression caused by such a scene, and tumultuous thoughts crowded so thick and fast that the pen failed to record the intense emotion of reverend awe that comes at such a time. I thought of some fiery hearts I once knew resting beneath those stones, and could almost imagine one of the number giving the word of command, and the long lines slowly advancing, but—

The neighing troop, the flashing blade.
The bugle's stirring blast.

The charge, the dreadful cannoneer,
The gun and shout are past;

and the long lines are motionless.

Weary with my journey, I deferred further visiting until the day should break.

At dawn I resumed my wanderings and spent literally a day among the tombs.

The cemetery is well kept, and the green grass and flowers, with here and there a mocking bird warbling in the trees, seemed a contrast to the terrible past, with which the world is, alas! familiar. Over the cemetery gate is a bronze plate, surmounted by the coat of arms of the United States, upon which the following appears in raised letters.

UNITED STATES

NATIONAL MILITARY CEMETERY.
Established July 26, 1865.

Internments
Unknown
1,120
1,443

Near the entrance six graves appear separated from the rest. On the stones over the following names Patrick Delaney, Pa., Chas. Curtis, R. I., William Collins, Pa., John Sarsfield, N. Y., William Rickson, U. S. N., A. Munn, U. S. N. These men were court-martialed and hung by their fellow prisoners for stealing and murder. Eighteen were tried and the above six convicted. Collins was a giant, physically, and the ring-leader. When he was hung the rope broke, and he had to be elevated a second time, and after a long struggle was finally done to death.

A few stones have been erected over the graves of the departed by friends and relatives, and stand in the long lines like officers among the infantry, and it takes but little stretch of the imagination to make reality of the picture set forth in the beginning of this sketch.

Many have come hither to remove the remains of relatives, but the grounds are so well kept and cared for and the situation so beautiful and appropriate, that few removals have taken place, and besides, when relatives and friends have forever passed away, a grateful nation will keep their memory green, and honor those in death, who, when alive, it was powerless to save.

The plain marble slabs are, some of them, beautiful, being of mottled and variegated marble, and among so many thousands some exquisite specimens occur. Here and there among the throng appears a square stone, shorter than the rest, with a simple number thereon, marking an unknown grave. It makes a mournful impression to see the frequency of so many stones. Nineteen seems to be the average of the ages. Think of the mothers far away, watching and waiting, when the boys in '63 came marching home with glad and gallant tread! All that is left now is the little marble shaft, pointing merrily skyward, with name, age and regiment graven thereon, and Spartan mothers' hearts went out in a prayer for the loved and lost, whose young lives went slowly out amid the burning fever of the prison pen.

But little now is left of the stockade, but the line of red clay breastworks is yet intact, worn smooth by the tramp of sentinels in gray, who, twenty years ago, trod the weary beat, scarcely better fed or clothed than the starving wretches within. A field of oats has been planted in the enclosure which is full of dangerous wells sunk by the prisoners, who tried to tunnel the breastworks. Few succeeded in escaping, and if the outer works were reached, the sentinel's rifle, or bay of the bloodhounds, gave the alarm, and recapture was almost a certainty.

"Was Wirz as bad a man as represented?" I asked of an intelligent, soldierly-looking man.

"Yes, and he deserved his fate. I was stationed here three years when he was keeper."

"Have you any objection to giving me your name for publication?"

"No; it is J. F. Wood. I have always lived here; it is my present home, and I was a corporal in the Second Georgia Infantry, regular army of the Confederate states."

They have placed on sale at all prominent points round trip tickets to St. Paul via Dubuque, and the famous "Flying Dutchman" train of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway, which skirts the banks of the Mississippi for almost the entire distance, making the trip most delightful ones. Those who have visited St. Paul and surroundings need not be told of its attractions. Other, new to that locality, and deserving information, will please call upon the undersigned for a call—Up the Mississippi by the "Flying Dutchman," and address Mr. A. F. C. Moore, General passenger agent, C. M. & St. P. R., Milwaukee, Wis., for a copy of a pamphlet entitled "Through to St. Paul and Minneapolis." All information as to rates, tickets, etc., cheerfully furnished.

W. S. MUSOLO,
Agt. H. Central,
Decatur, Ill.

Ladies' Kid Button Boots, soft, light
soled & 15-dwt.

Griggs' Glycerine Salve.

The best on earth can truly be said of Griggs' Glycerine Salve, which is a sure cure for cuts, burns, scalds, burns, warts, and all other sores. Will promptly cure warts, festers and all skin eruptions. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Only 25 cents. For sale by Dr. A. J. Storer.

Griggs' Glycerine Salve.

Special arrangement Process Flours
and the best flour in the world. None of its virtues are wasted.

By R. M. HAMSLER.

Big No. 18

CHEAP STORE.

SOL MORITZ & CO.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

A Reminder of the Past, and the Deeds of Cruelty of a Confederate Prison Keeper.

A correspondent made a pilgrimage to Andersonville, Ga., and writes as follows concerning a famous relic of war times:

Footsore, weary and covered with dust I arrived at this place two nights ago. At an hour past midnight the gibbons moon trembled on the meridian, and the range of hills was passed overlooking the great burial place as I paused, gazing long and silently at the lines of white headstones—literally line upon line—like silent regiments of sheeted spectres, waiting for the trumpet sound of the final judgment. No tongue or pen can write the impression caused by such a scene, and tumultuous thoughts crowded so thick and fast that the pen failed to record the intense emotion of reverend awe that comes at such a time. I thought of some fiery hearts I once knew resting beneath those stones, and could almost imagine one of the number giving the word of command, and the long lines slowly advancing, but—

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Guiteau is not showing as much weakness as it was expected he would. The jail physician says that he has lived all his life on hopes, generally false ones, and that he will not give up until the last possible effort to save his life has failed. He is now buoyed up by the hope that Mr. Reed will obtain a writ of habeas corpus, or will at least obtain a reprieve from the president until the supreme court at its October term can hear the argument on an application for a writ of habeas corpus. Mr. Reed is now in Boston, and it is currently reported that the object of his visit there is to make an application to Justice Gray, of the United States supreme court in chambers, for this writ. Mr. Reed's first purpose is said to have been to apply to Justice Bradley, and failing with him, to apply to Justice Gray. It is not known whether he made the application or not. Justice Gray, some of Mr. Reed's friends think, is to be sought because he never has been identified with politics, is a lawyer of great ability, and fearless in the expression of his views, and so constituted that, if he should be convinced that there was enough in the question of jurisdiction to make it seem necessary that the matter should be passed upon by the United States supreme court, he would not hesitate to say so, regardless of popular clamor. None of the lawyers here who have watched the technicalities of the case think that any Justice of the supreme court would interfere after the elaborate decision by the supreme court of the District of Columbia en banc. There is very much more popular interest in the preparation for the hanging and the setting of the death watch. The jail authorities have applied to James Van Heise, a working carpenter of Newark, N. J., to act as hangman, and have offered him $200 for his services. Van Heise has written here stating that if he undertakes the work he will require that gallows similar to that in use by him in New Jersey shall be used, and that he shall be allowed one assistant. He is also asking that the amount of compensation shall be increased. Van Heise has conducted thirteen hangings in New Jersey (four in Middlesex, two in Elizabeth, one in Belvidere, one in Morristown, one in Jersey City, and four in Newark). He is an expert hangman, and is not credited with a single blunder. The gallows used by him has been improved by him, and it is now in the jail at Newark, where two condemned murderers are awaiting the result of their applications to the Court of Errors for new trials.

Guiteau shows no perceptible change. Four deputy wardens have been detailed at his death watch, and he is never for an instant out of sight of one of the guards in his sleeping or walking hours. He still continues to blaspheme as to his future state, and says that, should he fail to make a will, he will leave the income of his book, "The Truth," to the Young Men's Christian Association of New York and Chicago. As the book has had no sale, the assassin's legacy will not be valuable.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—After three or four dilatory motions, Mr. Calkins asked and obtained unanimous consent to submit a counter proposition to that submitted by Mr. Blackburn yesterday. It is proposed that the house proceed to the consideration of the Mackay-Dibble case, and that after six hours' discussion the house shall vote on the question of recommittal by yeas and nays. If it is decided in the negative, then the house shall continue to consider the case until it is finished, without filibustering motions.

Mr. Randall—The proposition is not satisfactory, and I object to this in regard thereto.

Mr. Reed—Oh! yes; we understand the democratic position—they object to discussion.

The conclusion of his remarks was rendered inaudible by cries for the regular order from the democratic side.

Several roll-calls followed on dilatory motions which showed that the republicans lacked two of a quorum.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—The Democratic refusal to accept the proposition of the Republicans did not create any surprise, as it was pretty well understood they would not accept anything which did not delay the consideration of the case. The Republicans were ready for this, and presented a new rule, which will prevent dilatory motions on election cases beyond a reasonable limit. This they expect to be able to pass, as Mr. Blaine ruled, when Speaker, that an amendment to the rules was a question of the highest privilege, and that dilatory motions would not lie against such action. The Republicans expect, therefore, to be able to take up and pass this rule, probably on Monday, and when it is passed go on to the beginning of this sketch.

Many have come hither to remove the remains of relatives, but the grounds are so well kept and cared for and the situation so beautiful and appropriate, that few removals have taken place, and besides, when relatives and friends have forever passed away, a grateful nation will keep their memory green, and honor those in death, who, when alive, it was powerless to save.

The plain marble slabs are, some of them, beautiful, being of mottled and variegated marble, and among so many thousands some exquisite specimens occur. Here and there among the throng appears a square stone, shorter than the rest, with a simple number thereon, marking an unknown grave. It makes a mournful impression to see the frequency of so many stones. Nineteen seems to be the average of the ages. Think of the mothers far away, watching and waiting, when the boys in '63 came marching home with glad and gallant tread! All that is left now is the little marble shaft, pointing merrily skyward, with name, age and regiment graven thereon, and Spartan mothers' hearts went out in a prayer for the loved and lost, whose young lives went slowly out amid the burning fever of the prison pen.

But little now is left of the stockade, but the line of red clay breastworks is yet intact, worn smooth by the tramp of sentinels in gray, who, twenty years ago, trod the weary beat, scarcely better fed or clothed than the starving wretches within. A field of oats has been planted in the enclosure which is full of dangerous wells sunk by the prisoners, who tried to tunnel the breastworks. Few succeeded in escaping, and if the outer works were reached, the sentinel's rifle, or bay of the bloodhounds, gave the alarm, and recapture was almost a certainty.

"Was Wirz as bad a man as represented?" I asked of an intelligent, soldierly-looking man.

"Yes, and he deserved his fate. I was stationed here three years when he was keeper."

"Have you any objection to giving me your name for publication?"

"No; it is J. F. Wood. I have always lived here; it is my present home, and I was a corporal in the Second Georgia Infantry, regular army of the Confederate states."

They have placed on sale at all prominent points round trip tickets to St. Paul via Dubuque, and the famous "Flying Dutchman" train of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway, which skirts the banks of the Mississippi for almost the entire distance, making the trip most delightful ones. Those who have visited St. Paul and surroundings need not be told of its attractions. Other, new to that locality, and deserving information, will please call upon the undersigned for a call—Up the Mississippi by the "Flying Dutchman," and address Mr. A. F. C. Moore, General passenger agent, C. M. & St. P. R., Milwaukee, Wis., for a copy of a pamphlet entitled "Through to St. Paul and Minneapolis." All information as to rates, tickets, etc., cheerfully furnished.

W. S. MUSOLO,
Agt. H. Central,
Decatur, Ill.

Ladies' Kid Button Boots, soft, light
soled & 15-dwt.

Griggs' Glycerine Salve.

The best on earth can truly be said of Griggs' Glycerine Salve, which is a sure cure for cuts, burns, scalds, burns, warts, and all other sores. Will promptly cure warts, festers and all skin eruptions. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Only 25 cents. For sale by Dr. A. J. Storer.

Griggs' Glycerine Salve.

Special arrangement Process Flours
and the best flour in the world. None of its virtues are wasted.

By R. M. HAMSLER.

Big No. 18

CHEAP STORE.

SOL MORITZ & CO.

be to reduce to a minimum the number of dilatory motions which may be entertained. For example, Calkins may call up a contested election case. A member of the minority may then make one motion to adjourn or to take a recess. After that motion has been voted down no other dilatory motion can be made until after the consideration of the case has been begun and continued for an hour, and then only after debate on the case shall have been concluded and a motion shall be made to adjourn or to take a recess. After that motion has been voted down no other dilatory motion can be made until after the consideration of the case has been begun and continued for an hour, and then only after debate on the case shall have been concluded and a motion shall be made to adjourn or to take a recess.

PHILADELPHIA, May 27.—Cameron held a conference to-day, with a number of business men with reference to supporting the ticket. It has been decided that the regular republican convention be reconvened within the next fifteen days and be composed of the same delegates who formed the first convention and the vacancy caused by the resignation of Marshall will then be filled.

The senator stated to his visitors his purpose in inviting them in conference was to lay before them the real situation of affairs and dangers which threatened the life of the party. The success of the ticket, he said, rested with the great agricultural, mining and commercial interests of the state. He had fought for a protective tariff in the senate, but if those who had heretofore supported the republican ticket wanted to stab him he is now ready to receive the blow, and would oppose tariff in the senate as cheerfully as he had upheld it. "If you want to kill the party we will all go to destruction together."

WASHINGTON, May 27.—After three or four dilatory motions, Mr. Calkins asked and obtained unanimous consent to submit a counter proposition to that submitted by Mr. Blackburn yesterday. It is proposed that the house proceed to the consideration of the Mackay-Dibble case, and that after six hours' discussion the house shall vote on the question of recommittal by yeas and nays.

Mr. Randall—The proposition is not satisfactory, and I object to this in regard thereto.

Mr. Reed—Oh! yes; we understand the democratic position—they object to discussion.

The conclusion of his remarks was rendered inaudible by cries for the regular order from the democratic side.

Several roll-calls followed on dilatory motions which showed that the republicans lacked two of a quorum.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—After three or four dilatory motions, Mr. Calkins asked and obtained unanimous consent to submit a counter proposition to that submitted by Mr. Blackburn yesterday. It is proposed that the house proceed to the consideration of the Mackay-Dibble case, and that after six hours' discussion the house shall vote on the question of recommittal by yeas and nays.

Mr. Randall—The proposition is not satisfactory, and I object to this in regard thereto.

Mr. Reed—Oh! yes; we understand the democratic position—they object to discussion.

The conclusion of his remarks was rendered inaudible by cries for the regular order from the democratic side.

Several roll-calls followed on dilatory motions which showed that the republicans lacked two of a quorum.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—After three or four dilatory motions, Mr. Calkins asked and obtained unanimous consent to submit a counter proposition to that submitted by Mr. Blackburn yesterday. It is proposed that the house proceed to the consideration of the Mackay-Dibble case, and that after six hours' discussion the house shall vote on the question of recommittal by yeas and nays.

Mr. Randall—The proposition is not satisfactory, and I object to this in regard thereto.

Mr. Reed—Oh! yes; we understand the democratic position—they object to discussion.

The conclusion of his remarks was rendered inaudible by cries for the regular order from the democratic side.

Several roll-calls followed on dilatory motions which showed that the republicans lacked two of a quorum.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—After three or four dilatory motions, Mr. Calkins asked and obtained unanimous consent to submit a counter proposition to that submitted by Mr. Blackburn yesterday. It is proposed that the house proceed to the consideration of the Mackay-Dibble case, and that after six hours' discussion the house shall vote on the question of recommittal by yeas and nays.

Mr. Randall—The proposition is not satisfactory, and I object to this in regard thereto.

Mr. Reed—Oh! yes; we understand the democratic position—they object to discussion.

The conclusion of his remarks was rendered inaudible by cries for the regular order from the democratic side.

WE HAVE NOW FINISHED THE REFITTING OF OUR STORE.

OUR STOCK OF WATCHES, CLOCKS, SILVERWARE, FORKS, SPOONS, KNIVES, CARVING SETS, JEWELRY of All Kinds, AND DIAMONDS!
IS LARGER THAN EVER.

The new Show Cases give us a chance to display a great many goods hitherto kept in the safe. It makes no difference what you may want in our line, we show three times the quantity you can find in town, and offer you prices lower than can be offered by any smaller dealers.

COME IN AND SEE OUR DISPLAY AND GET OUR PRICES.

It will cost you nothing to look, and if OUR LOW PRICES DON'T SELL YOU THE GOODS WE WILL NOT TEAR YOUR CLOTHES.

NO GOODS SOLD THAT WE CANNOT WARRANT.

— We will keep up —

Our Special Drive on Watches!

That is a department of our business where we can

Save You From 15 to 25 Per Cent.,

And give you your choice between

ROCKFORD, WALTHAM, ELGIN, HAMPDEN, SPRINGFIELD, HOWARD,

— As well as the —

Fine Swiss and Imported Goods.

We are not compelled to talk any particular make of Watch, because it is the only kind we carry, for we CARRY THEM ALL.

O. E. CURTIS & CO.
LEADING JEWELERS.

May 10—d&w

ABEL & LOCKE

Are receiving Carousels of

C
A
R
E
T

ELEGANT STYLES.
WALL PAPER.
RICH COLORINGS.
DURABLE QUALITY.

— AND —
CURTAINS.

What are being sold at a GREAT BARGAIN.

An Absolute Fact.

You can buy Dress Goods of S. G. Hatch & Bro. cheaper than any other House in this city.

You can buy Table Linens, Towels, Turkey Reds, Napkins, Crashes, &c., cheaper than elsewhere.

You can buy Cottonades, Cheviots, Jeans, Tweeds, &c., cheaper than you ever saw them.

A special offering of Kentucky Jeans at much less than value.

Special prices on Millinery, Ribbons, Laces, Trimmed and Untrimmed Bonnets and Hats. Now is the best time to buy.

Inspection solicited.

S. G. HATCH & BRO.,

May 17—d&w

D. F. Hamsher,

— DEALER IN —

BUGGIES,

PHLETONS, SPRING WAGONS, ETC.,

And the Manufacturer of the Celebrated

HAMSHER IRON FELLOE FARM WAGON.

You are cordially invited to visit his Factory at any time, and to examine his stock of

BUGGIES, FARM AND SPRING WAGONS.

He guarantees to give you the fullest satisfaction, both as to style and quality of work and price.

Factory on Wood street, between South Main and South Water streets.

The Daily Republican.

TERMS:

For week, payable to Carrier,	15cts.
One year, in advance,	$7.00
One Month,	3.50
Three Months,	1.75

MONDAY EVENING, MAY 20, 1882.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

We are authorized to announce WILLIAM A. BARNES as a candidate for member of the Board of Education.

The largest assortment of Lawn Vases in the city at

E. D. BARTHOLOMEW & CO.'S.

The $10 Suits at Stine's. M5-dif

Four special policemen are on duty to-day.

STYLISH wall paper, borders, etc., at Abel & Locke's.

Don't miss "Belle Taylor" Wednesday night.

Stine's $10 all wool Cassimere Suits. M5-dif

The banks will be closed all day to-morrow.

GENTLE Pony for sale. Apply to 23-46 W. J. QUINLAN.

Ger' stylish pole cornices at Abel & Locke's carpet house.

DECATOR will turn out to the circus to-night.

The circus tents are on the show grounds north of Durfee street.

The Chautauqua Circle will not meet this evening.

No fully necessary to sell Stine's all wool $10 Suits. M5-dif

The Palace Hotel was crowded with guests not, broken hearts will be left in our neighboring city after the game. At least fifty persons from here will accompany the boys on the trip to Decatur.

ALL first-class dealers sell Schroeder's Bohemian cigars at 5 cents each.

Four Special Premiums.

The managers of the Mason County Agricultural Society are making special efforts to make the approaching county fair unusually attractive, and have secured a number of special prizes. The Brennenman Bros. offer prizes valued at $35, as follows:

D. W. Brennenman & Bro., of this county, for best sucking colt sired by stallion "Stoney Boy", $25.

For best sucking colt sired by Clydesdale stallion "Monarch of the East", $20.

For best sucking colt sired by Norman stallion "Niger", $20.

For best sucking colt sired by Clydesdale stallion "Turk", $15.

Many other special premiums are also offered by various persons whose names will be published in due time.

See the new goods and low prices at the big store of L. L. FARNAS & CO., on Merchant street.

The only latest styles in Decatur of men's low shoes are at M5-dif L. L. FARNAS & CO.

A large number of Decaturites visited the Inter-Ocean show grounds Sunday afternoon to see the elephant go round.

Get fresh family groceries and nice canned goods at Siddle & Co.'s, on Merchant street.

Especially adapted for mechanics and workingmen—the $10 all wool Suits at Stine's. M5-dif

SELECT superior musical instruments at C. B. Prescott's; also pianos and organs.

The Good Templars will meet this evening as usual. All members are urged to be present.

See the new goods and low prices at the big store of L. L. FARNAS & CO.

M5-dif

No marks by telegraph until Wednesday.

This trip the boards of trade throughout the country take two holidays.

The Decatur Band did not go to Peoria on Sunday, because the Turners decided not to go when they learned that the train would not arrive at the city of distilleries until long after 12 o'clock.

The case of Coale against Ruddock, taken to the appellate court from this county by Coale, and in which was involved property valued at $30,000, has been decided in favor of Ruddock.

Dr. Coale has a new chair at his office which is intended as an improvement on the old one. He will give the new self-propeller a test, and if it don't fill the bill will be sent back to the manufacturer.

HARRY A. ISAACS (agent for Hill's Manual), cordially invites his friends to call at the New Daming and smoke one of the new cigars he won but did not receive.

JOURNAL CURTIS requests us to state that he desires to interview a police officer that he may have a warrant served upon a party accused of making an assault on a stranger.

The twin children of Mr. James W. Clark, John and May, aged four years, who were adopted by Mr. Berry Sines, died of diphtheria at the Sines' residence in Long Creek township, one on Saturday and the other on Sunday.

The German Lutheran folks ought to have a Mission Church in the fifth ward.

About 100 residents of that section of the city worship at the church on West Wood street, and consequently they have had a long tramp there and back home.

Go to Peter Ulrich's and get bar of that Magnatic Soap; no washboard or boiling of cloth necessary; washing done in one-half the time, and guaranteed not to injure the finest fabric. 18-dif

Two ladies of St. Patrick's church will give a grand fair and festival at the tabernacle on the evenings of June 6th, 7th and 8th, for the benefit of the Ursuline Sisters of St. Therese's Academy. Preparations for the affair are now in progress.

The attention of those who will remember the fatal heinous by their presence at Greenwood to-morrow is directed to an article on the second page of this issue headed "Andersonville". It gives a vast amount of information with which many are not familiar.

Two great all wool Cassimere Suits at Stine's, the Boys Clothier. M5-dif

Rev. G. G. DOWDAMERY, of Upper Alton, who will graduate from Shurtleff College during the present week, occupied the pulpit at the Baptist Church on Sunday morning and evening. His topic at the morning hour was "God's Law". The congregations were good.

Attention is directed to-day to the advertisement in another column of the St. Louis and St. Paul Packet Company, which runs from St. Louis to St. Paul and other cities on the Mississippi. Send for illustrated guide book, entitled "Upper Mississippi River". Address, "St. Louis and St. Paul Packet Co., St. Louis Mo."

Great Stock Sale.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Messrs. Pickrell, Thomas & Smith's great stock sale, to take place June 1, at Harrisburg. It is not necessary to speak of the character of the stock sold at these sales—the name is enough.

I want everybody to know that my stock of groceries at No. 37 North Church street is of the best to be found in the city, and is offered at low prices. Good, fresh, choice a specialty; also Maple sugar that cannot be excelled for purity in any market. Give me a call.

May 26—d&w

R. R. Goss.

The Circus Parade.

The Batcher & Doris' circus outfit arrived in Decatur from Danville on Sunday morning and pitched tents on the Durfee street show grounds. The parade was made through the streets at about 10 o'clock this forenoon and was witnessed by a large crowd of city and country folk who lined the sidewalks and filled the store windows, verandas and doors. The pageant was a stunning affair, the principal features of which were the free exhibition of the $10,000 blonde beauty, attired in silk and satin of blue, who was perched upon the back of the mammoth elephant, the show of Indians riding single file, the fine horses, the ponies, an open cage of lions with the keeper inside, a monster boa constrictor twined about the body of a man, a band of contraband negroes on top of a cage, singing plantation songs, two fine bands, etc. At the close of the parade there was a free exhibition of rope walking at the tents. This afternoon the first show inside the tents was given, and this evening the public will witness the closing performance of the first circus of the season.

The Lincoln Club.

This is the way the Lincoln Journal speaks of the Lincoln base ball club which is to come to this city to-morrow and play a challenge game with the Decatur Red Stockings on the latter's grounds on East William street: "The new uniforms for the Lincoln base ball club have arrived. The body of the uniform throughout is white, the cap being trimmed in blue, and a red broad stripe across the pants. A solid red web belt will gird the loins of the mine, while La Croise shoes will adorn their feet. These uniforms are said to be the finest which have been sent out of Chicago this season. The boys look captivating in their new togs, and if we mistake not, broken hearts will be left in our neighboring city after the game. At least fifty persons from here will accompany the boys on the trip to Decatur."

Four Special Premiums.

The managers of the Mason County Agricultural Society are making special efforts to make the approaching county fair unusually attractive, and have secured a number of special prizes. The Brennenman Bros. offer prizes valued at $35, as follows:

D. W. Brennenman & Bro., of this county, for best sucking colt sired by stallion "Stoney Boy", $25.

For best sucking colt sired by Clydesdale stallion "Monarch of the East", $20.

For best sucking colt sired by Norman stallion "Niger", $20.

For best sucking colt sired by Clydesdale stallion "Turk", $15.

Many other special premiums are also offered by various persons whose names will be published in due time.

See the new goods and low prices at the big store of L. L. FARNAS & CO.

M5-dif

No marks by telegraph until Wednesday.

This trip the boards of trade throughout the country take two holidays.

The Decatur Band did not go to Peoria on Sunday, because the Turners decided not to go when they learned that the train would not arrive at the city of distilleries until long after 12 o'clock.

The case of Coale against Ruddock, taken to the appellate court from this county by Coale, and in which was involved property valued at $30,000, has been decided in favor of Ruddock.

Dr. Coale has a new chair at his office which is intended as an improvement on the old one. He will give the new self-propeller a test, and if it don't fill the bill will be sent back to the manufacturer.

HARRY A. ISAACS (agent for Hill's Manual), cordially invites his friends to call at the New Daming and smoke one of the new cigars he won but did not receive.

JOURNAL CURTIS requests us to state that he desires to interview a police officer that he may have a warrant served upon a party accused of making an assault on a stranger.

The twin children of Mr. James W. Clark, John and May, aged four years, who were adopted by Mr. Berry Sines, died of diphtheria at the Sines' residence in Long Creek township, one on Saturday and the other on Sunday.

The German Lutheran folks ought to have a Mission Church in the fifth ward.

About 100 residents of that section of the city worship at the church on West Wood street, and consequently they have had a long tramp there and back home.

Go to Peter Ulrich's and get bar of that Magnatic Soap; no washboard or boiling of cloth necessary; washing done in one-half the time, and guaranteed not to injure the finest fabric. 18-dif

Two ladies of St. Patrick's church will give a grand fair and festival at the tabernacle on the evenings of June 6th, 7th and 8th, for the benefit of the Ursuline Sisters of St. Therese's Academy. Preparations for the affair are now in progress.

The attention of those who will remember the fatal heinous by their presence at Greenwood to-morrow is directed to an article on the second page of this issue headed "Andersonville". It gives a vast amount of information with which many are not familiar.

Two great all wool Cassimere Suits at Stine's, the Boys Clothier. M5-dif

Rev. G. G. DOWDAMERY, of Upper Alton, who will graduate from Shurtleff College during the present week, occupied the pulpit at the Baptist Church on Sunday morning and evening. His topic at the morning hour was "God's Law". The congregations were good.

Attention is directed to the advertisement in another column of the St. Louis and St. Paul Packet Company, which runs from St. Louis to St. Paul and other cities on the Mississippi. Send for illustrated guide book, entitled "Upper Mississippi River". Address, "St.

